

Figures of holiness in the Institute

Alive in us the presence of our venerable Foundress Mother
Maria Pia Notari, and Blessed Mary of the Passion.

We follow them in praising the Lord, in the love of the Eucharist through the example of Mary, "woman of the Eucharist".

Our Apostolic Work

Is express in:

- manufacturing of hosts;
and distribution of host and wine
- manufacturing of liturgical vestments
and altar linens;
- christian formation of person by educating them in the faith through: management of Catholic schools, management of social, charitable and educative institutes;
Management of homes for the elderly
And holiday homes; Following up and hospitality of young students far from their homes; Hospitality and assistance of organized groups for spirituality and formation; Collaboration in the life and works of the parishes and diocese.

Come and follow me...

Our Charism

...is our oblation to the Father as Christ Crucified in the Eucharistic love.

Our spirituality

The elements of our charism and spirituality are: Christ Crucified, the Eucharist the responsible offering of ourselves, love and sacrifice.

For us prayer

Is a privileged time to stay with Our Bridegroom, so that He may always work in us, and in the many daily occupations and labors, he may permeate our lives and our existence.

Christ Calls...
Chooses...
Sends...
To go and bear fruits

Christ has called us and summons us every day to unite to Himself in the Eucharist, to make us ever more His living and visible body. With Christ and in Christ, we Crucified Sisters, we offer to the Father for the salvation of man.

Our stages of Formation to Consacrated life

The intense stages of formation are: Postulancy, Novitiate, and Juniorate, with the awareness that formation does not end with them but continues throughout the entire life.

The postulancy

...is a period of pursuit, discernment, choice.

The novitiate

...is a period of deepening one's proper vocation, charism, and spirituality of the Congregation

The Juniorate

...is a period of applying the learnings of the previous stages and continuing with one's personal human and spiritual growth through the courageous practice of the commitment to Jesus.
